5. The Feerick Commission recommended a series of reforms to the current elective system that might address the constitutional issues found by the Appeals Court in Lopez Torres (see cover letter). Included in the Feerick Commission recommendations, are reforms of the judicial nominating conventions. The reforms are designed to increase the participation and knowledge of delegates to the convention. They include:

- providing for the election of judicial delegates long before the conventions,
- decreasing the number of delegates,
- extending the term a delegate maintains his/her position,
- decreasing the petition signatures required for a delegate, and
- allowing judicial candidates to address the delegates at the convention.

Would you support legislation that would include some or all of these recommendations?
