Mr. Dennis R. Hawkins, Executive Director
The Committee for Modern Courts
351 West 54th Street
New York, NY 10019

Dear Mr. Hawkins:

Thank you for your organization's 2006 candidate questionnaire.

While I do my best to respond to as many questionnaires as I can, my office has received more questionnaires than I have time and staff to complete.

In all cases, though, I stand behind my record as a State Assemblyman for the past four years representing the families of Central New York. I know that my votes on the issues most important to your organization are part of the public record, and I invite you to examine those votes and consider them an indicator of my views on these concerns.

I regret that I am unable to fulfill your request for a detailed response to a questionnaire, but I hope this information will prove adequate for your members to assess my views on these matters.

Thank you for your efforts.

Warm regards.

Sincerely,
